

CSOS: Amended Form B and Form B1

Dear Member

Please note that the CSOS has amended Form B (for sectional titles) and Form B1 (for all other types of schemes) for the quality assurance of scheme rules. It is required that you insert your CSOS Registration Number on the form.

The CSOS Registration Number is required before the CSOS will quality assure the scheme's governance documentation.

If the scheme is not registered, the attached Form CS1 must be completed in order for the scheme to be registered.

It is compulsory for sectional title schemes to have their rules quality assured by the CSOS. It is not compulsory for HOA's or Share Blocks to have their rules quality assured, however, the CSOS do provide this service to these types of schemes free of charge. It is beneficial to have rules quality assured by the CSOS as they will advise of any undesirable rules and will also issue a compliance certificate.

The CSOS does not charge a fee to quality assure governance documentation.

You may access Form B, Form B1, and Form CS1 by clicking on the links below.
