Company Profile Pam Golding Properties Lephale / Thabazimbi

In April 2004, Pam Golding Properties Waterberg opened its doors as a franchised real estate company in Lephale, a decision that marked the beginning of a thriving career in property management. The business quickly expanded its reach, serving areas like Thabazimbi and Vaalwater. Over time, the company grew to specialize in a wide array of services, managing several Homeowners' Associations (HOAs) and complexes, while also handling sales, rentals, and property management with precision and care.

Pam Golding Properties Waterberg leadership, under the name Assis Pontes, has been pivotal in the company's growth. He has overseen every aspect of the business, ensuring that the company operates with integrity and professionalism, backed by a trust account for secure transactions. Assis Pontes and the team markets a diverse portfolio, including homes, farms, vacant land, and both industrial and commercial properties. With a focus on personalized service and local expertise, Torsten's real estate business has become a trusted name in the region, serving the unique needs of property owners and investors alike.

As principal from the very beginning, Assis Pontes dedication to his clients and deep understanding of the local market have solidified his company's place in the industry. His vision has guided the business through ever-changing property landscapes, always with a focus on delivering quality and reliability.
